PARAPLEGIA

Index to volume 20 (1982)

Subject index

Abstracts of Papers
56, 119, 190, 255, 318

Ambulation
The adult ORLAV swivel walker—ambulation for paraplegic and tetraplegic patients, by Farmer et al. 248

Anaemia
Anaemia in patient with traumatic spinal cord injury, by Perkash and Brown 235

Aortic Trauma
Paraplegia following aortic surgery, by Lynch and Weingarden 196

Appliances
The adult ORLAV swivel walker—ambulation for paraplegic and tetraplegic patients, by Farmer et al. 248
A new transfer device for paraplegics, by Chantraine et al. 180
Splintage for the spinal cord injury patient, by Minns et al. 54

Blood Pressure
Clinical and anatomical observation of a patient with a complete lesion at C1 with maintenance of a normal blood pressure during 40 minutes after the accident, by Dro et al. 169

Book Reviews
56, 118, 316, 383

Brain Death
Clinical and anatomical observation of a patient with a complete lesion at C1 with maintenance of a normal blood pressure during 40 minutes after the accident, by Dro et al. 169

Cerebral Palsy
Cervical spondylosis with myelopathy as a complication of cerebral palsy, by McCluer 308

Cervical Myelopathy
Cervical spondylosis with myelopathy as a complication of cerebral palsy, by McCluer 308
Stenosis and movement of the cervical spine in cervical myelopathy, by Grüninger and Gruss 121

Diagnosis
Clinical and anatomical observation of a patient with a complete lesion at C1 with maintenance of a normal blood pressure during 40 minutes after the accident, by Dro et al. 169
An unusual injury of the cervical spine caused by a fork lift, by Dro 237

Discussion, Meetings, Announcements
57, 115, 190, 320, 382

Editorials
Late complications of traumatic paraplegia, by Jousse 18
Then and now, by Talbot 59
What industry can do for paraplegia, by Nakamura 261

Electric Stimulation
Rehabilitation of micturition by transurethral electrostimulation of the bladder in patients with incomplete spinal cord lesions, by Madersbacher 191
Sacral anterior root stimulators for bladder control in paraplegia, by Brindley et al. 36

Embolisation, therapeutic
Percutaneous embolisation of major spinal cord artery as a treatment for intractable spasticity, by Shibaski et al. 158

Employment see also Social Reintegration
Editorial: What industry can do for paraplegia, by Nakamura 261

Energy Metabolism
Wheelchair exercise: a review, by Dreisinger and Londeree 20
